advance in Asia; it is even possible that the necessity of sending some of her reserve troops from trans-Caucasus, to secure com munication through the Caucasus, may have contributed to retard the advance. Fortunately for Russia, the Turks seem scarcely in a position to take advantage of this de lay. All accounts from the spot agree that the condition of their forces is even worse than is generally believed. They are considfewer than has been assumed, and, with the exception of arms, lack everything requisite for an army in the field. maintances invited to attend. RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

H. F. SMITH,

A meeting of the Agents representing the various Freight Lines doing business in Memphis, was held in the comrattice-room of the Cotton Exchange, yes terday, and the following action was taken in regard to the death of one of their members, Mr. H. F. in the companies from of the Cotton Exchange, yesterday, and the following action was taken in regard to the death of one of their members, Mr. H. F. SMTE:

Mr. Barney Hughes being called to the chair, and Mr. A. F. Fisher acting as secretary, a committee of three, consisting of J. C. Forbes, A. G. Tuther and Joseph Nash, were appointed to draft suitable resolutions, and reported the following, which were un inlinously adopted:

Whereas, It is with heartfelt pain we are here to give expression to our regret at the loss we have sustained in the sudden death of our friend and brother Agent, Mr. Horace F. Smith; therefore, be it hesolved. That in the years we have known and been associated with him in the transportation business of Memphis, we have always found him correct and apright in his dealings, just in decisions when difficulties may have arisen, and ever the genial, kind triend and companion.

Resolved, That the Freight Agents of Memphis, in the death of this member, suffer an irreparable loss, both in our immediate business, and also of a worthy and upright member of the community.

Resolved, That in our sincere and heartfelt sympathy with the grief and sorrow-stricken widow and mourning relatives, words are inadequate to express the depth of our feelings, and we can only hope that an all-wise Providence, whose ways are inscrutable, may, in His metry and goodness, so temper the heavy burden.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in each of our daily papers, and a copy be transcribed and forwarded to the family of the deceased.
